

T-Shirt Pillow Workshop

Girl Scouts of San Jacinto Council

Turn your favorite Girl Scout t-shirt into a permanent memory by making a quilt square that becomes a pillow sham and get tips on making a t-shirt quilt.

Girls learn skills to help them complete the Patchwork Promise Council Program Patch or numerous handwork themed GSUSA awards.

- Who: Girl Scout Junior - Ambassador
Please list program level on registration.
Safety-Wise ratio of adults + any mother who wants to work with her daughter on this project.
- Where: Program Place for Girls
- When: Saturday, July 25 10 a.m. – 2 p.m.
- Bring: Completed permission slip (F-204)
Completed medical form (F-185)
Completed adult emergency form (F-22)
Enthusiasm and interest
One t-shirt you are willing to cut apart
One fat quarter for your border
One yard of coordinating fabric for the sham
Portable sewing machine if you have one.
Thread to match
*(A limited number of sewing machines are available.
Please contact Melinda Gaskill, mgaskill@sjgs.org, if you cannot bring one.)
- Presenter: Workshop presented by Gladys Birdwell former staff member at GSSJC retired in 2007 after 25 years. Gladys a troop leader for 6 years began quilting in 2000 and has become adept at several forms of quilting. Her interest extends to quilt history and quilt inspired music. She became interested in t-shirt quilts after making one for her sister. Quilting is a never-ending journey of creativity with fabric and pattern. The process enhanced decision-making and patience.
- Min./Max.: 10/20 girls Event Code: 10-63-20-6240
- Cost: $15 per girl, Safety-Wise adult ratio free
- Register: Complete a Program Registration Form or register online
- Deadline: Saturday July 11
- Contact: Melinda Gaskill, 713-292-0232 or mgaskill@sjgs.org
Theresa Hunter, 713-292-0318, thunter@sjgs.org

