

United Space Alliance

Engineering, Science, and Technology Day

Girls enjoy the fascinating realm of space at United Space Alliance while completing fun, exciting hands-on activities AND earn requirements for GSUSA Aerospace, Careers, Creative Solutions and Discovering Technology Junior Girl Scout badges.

- Who: Juniors, Safety-Wise ratio of adult leaders/volunteers.
There should absolutely be no "tag-alongs"
- When: Saturday, March 6
Check in: 8 a.m.
Event: 8:30 a.m. – 3 p.m.
- Where: United Space Alliance (USA)
USA Training Academy, 1045 Gemini St., Houston, TX 77058
- Cost: $7 per girl
Safety-Wise ratio of adult leaders/volunteers free
- Bring: USA publicity form (sent w/ confirmation letter)
Permission slip (GSSJC form F-204)
Medical form (GSSJC form F-185)
Adult emergency form (GSSJC form F-22)
Drinks, lunch
Troop first aid kit (troop adult serves girls as first aider at event)
Girls wear their Girl Scout uniform or troop t-shirt, if available.
- Event code: 10-62-01-6241
- Due date: February 3
- Min./Max.: 60/80 girls
- Register: Use Program Registration Form or register online
- Contact: Emily Kremer, Program Manager, 713-292-0343, ekremer@sjgs.org
Registration: Theresa Hunter, 713-292-0318, thunter@sjgs.org
- Note: Girls may attend the event without a troop provided they have an adult chaperone.