

Earth Day

Ready for a day of conservation, recycling and awareness? Want to know what simple things you can do to make a difference? Then come celebrate Earth Day! This year's theme is "Sustainability". Discover ways you can save the planet in your everyday life.

Who: Brownie and Junior Girl Scouts, and their leaders
Where: Camp Camwood, Hockley
When: Saturday, April 24, 9:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.
Bring: Permission slips, medical forms, sack lunch
Minimum: 50
Maximum: 250
Cost: $12 per girl (includes patch, water bottle and handouts)
$6 per adult (includes patch and water bottle)
Event Code: 10-56-06-6236
Deadline: April 5
Contact: (General) Melissa Hardy, Program Manager, mhardy@sjgs.org, 713-292-0376
(Registration) Theresa Hunter, Registrar, thunter@sjgs.org,
713-292-0318

Note: Please adhere to Safety-Wise ratios—approximately two adults for every twelve Brownies, and approximately two adults for every sixteen Juniors.

Remember:

Girl Scouts leave the Earth greener than they found it....

