

presents

French Cooking for Girl Scouts

- Who: Girl Scout Seniors or Ambassadors (high school)
Girl can register without an adult
Limit one parent / girl, based on enrollment.
If more girls register, adults will be refunded.
No tag-a-longs
- What: Come experience delicious French cooking in honor of Julia Child and the Julie & Julia movie
- When: Saturday, April 24 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.
- Where: Rice Epicurean Market, 2020 Fountainview, Houston
(between Westheimer & San Felipe, west of the Galleria)
- Menu: Girls learn how to make and then enjoy eating:
Soupe A L'Oignon Gratinee (French Onion Soup)
Chicken L'Orange
Peas A La Francaise & Roasted Potatoes "shaped like Mushrooms"
Beignets
- Cost: $31 / person
- Bring: Completed form for each girl participant:
GSSJC form F-204, permission slip
GSSJC form F-185, medical form
GSSJC form F-22, Adult Emergency Form (adults)
- Event Code: 10-63-20-6245      Min./Max.: 10/20
- Deadline: Tuesday, April 6
- Register: Complete a Program Registration Form or register on-line.
- Contact: General: Melinda Gaskill, 713-292-0232 or mgaskill@sigs.org
Registration: Theresa Hunter, 713-292-0318 or thunter@sigs.org
- Notes: Elaine Starling Small, your chef for the day, has the professional objective to always achieve the highest quality goals in the Culinary Arts. As Chef/Director Rice Epicurean Cooking School-Houston, Texas since April 2000, Chef Small teaches children and teen classes, birthdays and camps, and adult birthday and private party classes and assists visiting chefs in cooking classes. Being Director entails monthly cooking class schedules, hiring, scheduling and training chef assistants, computer skills recipe testing and preparation of recipes for classes and chefs. She was seven years old when Julia Child appeared on the Public Television Station and is who inspired her to be a chef. Now she's been a professional chef for about 35 years it has come full circle with the Julie & Julia movie.

