

Partners In Leadership: "Follow Their Lead!"

Seniors, Ambassadors and Adults are invited to join us for Partners in Leadership: Follow Their Lead!" This is a dynamic and innovative weekend specifically designed for Seniors, Ambassadors and adults who work with high school girls. The weekend will be November 12-14 at Camp Casa Mare.

Guest Speakers * Door Prizes * Role Playing * Networking

Girls – Ever feel like adults don't listen to you? Want to boost your self confidence and skills while having fun? The weekend will be full of interactive training and activities that will help you learn about your leadership style, how to work with adults, and identify and market your unique personality and skills. Even get some down time to enjoy Camp Casa Mare and traditional Girl Scout activities.

Tune into your leadership style * Learn how to partner with adults

Adults – Girls speaking a completely different language from you? Work with other adults to learn how to support and encourage girls as they develop their leadership skills while you discover your strengths and style. End the weekend collaborating with girls to form highly functional joint ventures.

Separate workshops for girls and adults * Receive resources to share

This simultaneous event will enable girls and adults to have the tools and resources needed to establish a successful partnership. Overnight accommodations and meals will be included with the $35 event registration fee. Space is limited so apply or register early. Registered as a Juliette? In a troop? This event is designed for both individually registered girls and girls in troops. All will be able to share their new skills with friends, sister Girl Scouts and the world beyond.

Spend the weekend at Camp Casa Mare * Only $35 for entire event

An application for girls to attend this leadership opportunity will be required. No more than two girls per troop will be allowed to participate. The application and more details will be posted on the CIN – August 2010. Adults can register on-line.
