Outdoor Art Apprentice

Being outside in nature is a great way to spark your creativity. Some of our greatest works of art are inspired by nature - from early on, cave people drew pictures of sunsets, the sky, animals, and trees. Get ready to observe and collect things outdoors that will drive your art and creativity - from colors and patterns to landscapes and wildlife.

Video One: Suncatcher

16- or 18-guage wire
Jewelry or needle nose pliers
Scissors
Fishing line, string, or embroidery floss
Faceted Glass or Plastic Beads that will fit onto the wire (faceted pony beads work well)

Cut about a foot of wire and shape into a circle. Bend of one end and bend into a spiral. String beads onto wire. Bend open end of wire into a loop for hanging.
