GETTING STARTED

1. Complete new leader onboarding. Select a volunteer role. Complete GSUSA membership registration and background check. We’ll send you emails reminding you to complete these steps in case you forget.

2. Activate your access to your MyGS tab. Log in to MyGS via the green navigation bar on www.gssjc.org. Select MyGS. Here you can manage your membership, troop information, access gsLearn, and the Volunteer Toolkit and register for upcoming activities. Need help logging in? A step by step guide is located here: www.gssjc.org/content/dam/gssjc/documents/pdfs-for-website/GSSJC-LoggingintoMyGS.pdf.

3. Complete required troop leader training. This quick and easy training called Volunteer Basics, is a three video series, that includes Safety Basics, Troop Basics and Finance Basics and PDF guides for printing and downloading. Volunteer Basics is available online by logging into your MYGS account at gssjc.org, then selecting gsLearn. Complete the entire training including all the questions and quizzes. You may want to screenshot your completion certificate at the conclusion of the online course. Completing Volunteer Basics is required for receiving a troop leader appointment letter. A troop leader appointment letter is needed to open a troop bank account.

4. Set up your Volunteer Toolkit (VTK). The best online resource for troop program information is located within the Volunteer Toolkit. The troop can plan an entire year of age appropriate meetings with fun activities that build friendship, life skills and leadership using drag and drop technology. The Volunteer Toolkit also has the contact information for the other volunteers, adults and girls registered in the troop. Helpful videos at https://www.gssjc.org/en/for-volunteers/volunteer-hub/onlinewill explain how to use this mobile, electronic, customizable troop planning and organizing assistant.

5. Look at your calendar and select possible dates and times for a family meeting with members.

6. Introduce yourself by email or phone and invite each to a family meeting. It’s important for families to be involved in supporting the Girl Scout troop. Contact information for each girl registered in the troop is available through the MyGS tab under Troop Member.

7. Hold a family meeting to discuss troop meeting location, troop meeting schedule, how parents can volunteer and secure permission for girls to participate. Don’t forget to follow up with families with a meeting schedule including location, dates and times. Include the girls and families who may not have been present for the family meeting.

8. Open a troop bank account after receiving your troop leader appointment letter.

9. Plan and schedule your meetings in the Volunteer Toolkit. Invite the girls to attend.

10. Connect with your Girl Scout Community. Attend a New Leader Café.

11. Now, take a deep breath, smile and enjoy your first troop meeting with the best Girl Scout troop ever. Don’t forget to take a photo to remember this day and share with families.
Herstory

Girl Scouts is 2.5 million strong – 1.7 million girls and 750,000 adults who believe girls can change the world. We're part of Girl Scouts of the United States of America (you'll commonly hear it referred to as GSUSA).

It began more than 110 years ago with one woman, Girl Scouts’ founder Juliette Gordon “Daisy” Low, who believed in the power of every girl. In 1912, Juliette traveled to England to meet Sir Robert Baden-Powell (the founder of Boy Scouts). Upon her return to the United States, Juliette began the first Girl Scout troop to provide an environment to prepare girls to meet their world with courage, confidence, and character. This first troop of 18 girls played basketball, hiked, camped, swam and learned about the world around them.

Today we continue the Girl Scout mission of building girls of courage, confidence, and character, who make the world a better place.

We're the largest leadership development organization for girls. With programs for girls from coast to coast and across the globe, Girl Scouts offers every girl a chance to do something amazing.

Who was Juliette Gordon Low?

Juliette was born on October 31, 1860, which we celebrate yearly as Founder’s Day. She was a compassionate, curious and independent woman and was interested in nature, art, animals and athletics. Throughout her childhood and young adulthood, she experienced several ear injuries. This contributed to an almost complete loss of hearing for the rest of her life. These experiences and interests played a strong role in the development of the ideals and values of Girl Scouts.

“Scouting rises within you and inspires you to put forth your best.”

– Juliette Gordon Low
ALL ABOUT GIRL SCOUTS

Members
Members are girls, adult volunteer members (like you!) and lifetime Girl Scouts who are joined together in the pursuit of building girls of courage, confidence and character, who make the world a better place.

Troops
Troops are the most common way girls participate in Girl Scouts. Troops are led by volunteers (often parents, friends or family members). Troops can be a single school grade level, a single Girl Scout program level or multi-level. The average troop size is 12 girls. Troops allow girls to work as a team and build lasting friendships.

Communities
Our Council is made up of 57 Communities. Communities are comprised of volunteers and girl members in an immediate geographic area. These Communities are led by experienced individuals who support leaders, troops and individual members. You may hear from your Community volunteers regarding events, trainings, cookies and much more!

Girl Scouts of San Jacinto Council
Girl Scouts of San Jacinto Council is one of 112 councils in the U.S. and serves 54,000 girls in 26 southeast Texas counties. Our work is supported by more than 18,000 volunteers – including YOU! We’ll get to know one another over the coming year (and for years to come!) as you and your troop attend Council events, have questions, would like support, through social media and more.

Girl Scouts of the USA
Girl Scouts of the USA (commonly referred to as GSUSA) is the national organization to which Girl Scouts of San Jacinto Councils belongs. Originally founded by Juliette Gordon Low, GSUSA now serves 2.5 million girls and adults. GSUSA is comprised of 112 Girl Scout councils in all 50 states and Puerto Rico.

WAGGGS
WAGGGS or the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts is a 146-member international organization whose mission is “to inspire girls and young women to reach their fullest potential as responsible citizens of the world.” Girl Scouts of the USA is a member.
Girl Scouts wear uniforms in ceremonies, when officially representing Girl Scouts and when they want to show their Girl Scout pride. We know girls love acquiring patches, badges and insignia for their uniforms, and this is definitely one of the most memorable pieces of Girl Scouts for alumnae. Here are some basic tips:

- Sashes are worn from the right shoulder to the left hip.
- The insignia tab is worn on the left chest, over the heart.
- All unofficial awards go on the back of the uniform, including cookie, camp and fun patches.
- For formal events, sashes, vests and tunics are worn with white shirts and khaki pants or skirts.
- If you run out of space on the front of your uniform, you may place badges and awards on the back.

Badges vs. Patches
What’s the difference?

Badges and awards are earned by girls completing badge requirements found in the appropriate Girl Scout program level Handbook, Girl Scout Volunteer Toolkit (VTK) or the Girl Scouts of the USA Badge Explorer. Badges are also part Girl Scout Journeys for each Girl Scout Program level. Badges are placed on the front of the uniform.

Patches are given to girls for attending events or participating in non-Girl Scout program related activities. Patches should be placed on the back of the uniform.

Cool patches!

Some of our favorite Brownie badges!
The Girl Scout program centers on our mission of building girls of courage, confidence, and character who make the world a better place. We know that this part can be overwhelming and the program may look different than it did when you were a Girl Scout as a girl. Journeys and badges are the backbone of the program and will provide girls with a well-rounded Girl Scout experience!

Remember, as the leader you get to customize the experience so it will fit for your girls!

Journeys

The Girl Scout Journey program lays the foundation for girls to build leadership skills while learning about themselves and their world. Each Journey is made up of discovering, connecting and taking action (or the three keys to leadership).

Through the discover portion of the Journey, girls learn about broader topics, such as water conservation or how to tell a story. During the connect portion, girls see how what they learned during discover connects to their world. Finally, through taking action, girls plan and implement a Take Action project that addresses a need in their community.

There are many Journeys girls can complete. The It’s Your World – Change It! path inspires girls to make changes in their communities. The It’s Your Planet – Love It! path focuses on addressing conservation of the environment. The It’s Your Story – Tell It! path encourages girls to tell their own story in creative ways and is included in the Volunteer Toolkit with pre-planned meeting guides.

STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math) Journeys themes are Engineering, Computer Science and Outdoor STEM and focus on robotics and programming and involve a Take Action project. The Outdoor Journey is anchored by the Troop Camping badge. This Journey will deepen girls’ outdoor skills through badges that lead to a Take Action project and inspire girls to take an interest in environmental stewardship. Each Journey has troop meeting plans included in the Volunteer Toolkit.

Journeys can be completed in a few ways, and it is important to pick the best option for your troop. One way to complete a Journey is to follow along with the Journey books and the hard copy adult guides. Another option is to use the Volunteer Toolkit (VTK) to create your troop meeting plan. Some Journeys are only available through VTK. Journey activities can be shortened or lengthened depending on the needs of your troop’s meeting schedule. The final way to work on a Journey is to attend a Council-led program where girls earn part of the Journey and usually need to complete the Take Action project on their own as a troop. Our Council does not offer programs for every Journey or program level.

Badges

Girl Scouts earn badges that demonstrate a proficiency in a progression of skill-building activities. Generally these activities connect to a specific subject matter (for example, first aid or animal habitats). Some even complement Journey activities. Skill-building areas include STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math), healthy living and creativity, outdoor awareness and environmental stewardship, financial education and global citizenship and Girl Scout sisterhood. While program grade levels earn badges, Daisies can also earn petals and leaves. Each petal correlates to a line from the Girl Scout Law, and the leaves focus on financial literacy.

CEREMONIES

Ceremonies are a great way to celebrate different aspects of the Girl Scout year, from first joining the Girl Scout family to honoring themes that are important to girls to bridging into a new program grade level and everything in between. Come on, who doesn't love to celebrate?

Investitures
Investitures (mark this term in your glossary!) are a way to welcome new members into the Girl Scout family. During an investiture ceremony, new girls are presented with the Girl Scout membership pin in front of friends and families. Your troop can host this ceremony at the beginning of the year (usually in September or October), and there are many ways you can conduct the ceremony!

Rededication
Generally, investitures are tied to a Rededication ceremony. Rededication is a time for current members to reconnect with the Girl Scout mission and their commitment to the Girl Scout Promise and Law. Consider a Rededication ceremony for your second year.

Scouts’ Own Ceremony
A Scouts’ Own ceremony is completely girl-led and planned. The ceremony centers around a theme, such as nature, service or sisterhood. These ceremonies can include, but are not limited to, spoken word, songs, poetry or dance. It is important that it encompasses the girls’ expression of their feelings on the topic picked out by the troop. Try this one a couple months into the year, once your girls feel more comfortable around one another.
Court of Awards
Another common ceremony is the Court of Awards. This ceremony recognizes girls’ accomplishments throughout the year. It can be held at any time during the year and wherever the troop or Community wishes it to be. The Court of Awards includes both girls and volunteers.

Flag Ceremonies
Flag ceremonies are used to honor the American flag and occur at the beginning and end of an event and/or meeting. While not a required part of troop meetings, it is recommended for girls to have some familiarity with the process of the flag ceremony.

Bridging Ceremonies
Bridging ceremonies signify a girl’s move from one level of Girl Scouting to another (for example, Girl Scout Daisies to Girl Scout Brownies). It is a ceremony that provides girls an opportunity to reflect on their achievements and look forward to new adventures and responsibilities to come. Traditionally, girls cross over a bridge (can be a real bridge or something your girls make) and share what they have learned at their level.

A special bridging ceremony for Girl Scout Brownies is called a Fly Up; a girl will receive her Girl Scout pin along with her Brownie wings. Put this one on the back burner until girls are ready to bridge from Brownies to Juniors.

Need ceremony ideas? Go to a fun volunteer training or workshop, register for these at www.gssjc.org/en/activities/activity-list.html Volunteer activities will have a letter “V” to help you identify them.
THE VOLUNTEER TOOLKIT will make troop meeting planning pretty easy, especially if you like organizing using apps or websites, drag and drop convenience and having your resources available on your mobile device. Each Girl Scout meeting provides an opportunity to explore the world and learn new skills. As a troop leader, you can customize your year and the activities in each meeting with your girls. Flexibility is key — based on the needs and interests of your girls, you might have a meeting where you do just one activity. Then your next meeting may consist of three activities. The typical 60-90-minute meeting consists of:

Pre-Meeting: This is the period before the meeting officially begins. Troop leaders, parents and girls can use this time to chat and greet one another. Since you will be talking and setting up, the girls should have an easy, self-directed activity to engage their attention.

Opening (5 mins): The official start of the meeting. Opening activities:
Focus the girls on the meeting
Are chosen by the girls
Often include the Girl Scout Promise and Law
May include a song, game or story

Business Meeting (10 – 20 mins): This is the time for special announcements, dues, attendance, making plans, deciding/voting on activities, and other troop business. During the business meeting, girls will learn how to lead, influence others and communicate feelings and opinions. Little by little, allow girls to take responsibility for more of the business of the troop. Depending on how much you have to discuss, this section could also be done as part of your opening.

Activities (20 – 40 mins): Girls get a chance to build skills, try new things, explore their interests and work cooperatively with others. Girls help plan the activities they’ll do during troop meetings. These can include:

Ideas from Journeys, level handbook, VTK
Physical activity
Badge activity
Outdoor time/field trip

Snack time (10 mins, optional): Depending on the age range of your girls, troops may need some time to take a break and eat a quick snack. Parents/girls can take a turn bringing in snacks.

Clean-up (10 mins): Clean-up teaches girls to be responsible and allows girls to practice the Girl Scout tenant of leaving things better than you found them.” Use a Kaper Chart to split the tasks up fairly among the troop.

Closing (5 mins): The official end of the meeting. During this time, you can remind the girls of what you reviewed during today’s meeting, what’s coming up in the next meeting or activity and end on a positive note. Many troops like to close the meeting with a traditional Friendship Circle.

For more detailed information, including meeting and year plans for specific program levels, go to the Volunteer Toolkit for access to a library of activities that will help you electronically create a meeting agenda including all of the elements listed above. We have also included a sample attendance tracker, so you can keep track of which girls attended what meeting. PRO TIP: Name the meeting (with the date) after which badge or activity you are completing in case you need to fill in a parent of a girl who might have missed a meeting!
The Volunteer Toolkit can also track meeting attendance for you.

WHERE + WHEN TO MEET WITH YOUR TROOP

You and your co-leader (or other member of your troop leadership team) will work with girls and their families to determine the best time, date and location to meet.

While it’s important to ask for feedback from families as to when dates and times work, ultimately, the troop leader(s) is responsible for deciding the time, date and location of meetings.

Girls and adults participating in troops can meet once a week, once a month or twice a month — how often is up to you and your troop members. Most troops meet once or twice a month for about 60-90 minutes.

A meeting place needs to provide a safe, clean and secure environment that allows for participation of all girls. Consider meeting rooms at schools, places of worship, libraries, community buildings, childcare facilities and local businesses. Your meeting location should also provide enough space for appropriate physical distancing per GSSJC COVID-19 guidelines and reduce potential exposure to the COVID-19 virus. The latest COVID-19 guidelines are located here: https://www.gssjc.org/en/covid-19-information.html Safety Activity Checkpoints provides troop meeting space checkpoints. Volunteer Essentials also has troop meeting place guidelines. These documents are available under forms in the Volunteer Hub at https://www.gssjc.org/en/for-volunteers/volunteer-hub/forms-and-documents.html

A troop may also meet virtually through a secure online platform. GSSJC offers a discounted rate on Zoom license with the required safety parameters built into the gsZoom account.

Here are a few things to keep in mind when choosing a meeting place:

Safety: You’ll want your location to be safe, secure, clean, properly heated and cooled and free from hazards with all exits clearly marked.

Cost: Free or low-cost to use is best!

Availability: Will the location be available at the time and date of your meetings?

Facilities: Sanitary and accessible restrooms are a must.

Accessibility: Be sure to accommodate all girls.

Some ideas for troop meeting spaces are schools,
Having a family meeting is key to setting up a successful year of Girl Scouting! It’s also a great opportunity to ask parents and guardians for their support throughout the year.

What is a family meeting?

A family meeting is designed to provide an opportunity for troop leaders to connect directly with families and friends to foster engagement with the troop. It’s typically held three times a year: before the troop itself meets for the first time, mid-year before the start of the Cookie Program and as a wrap-up to end the program year.

How do I prepare for the family meeting?

Here’s a checklist of tasks as you prepare for your meeting:

- Choose a meeting day and location: Select a date, time and location that will suit you and your families’ needs. When choosing a meeting space, consider a location and time based on the needs of your families’ schedules but know that you might not be able to accommodate everyone. The meeting space should have enough room to accommodate families and their Girl Scout(s) and should ideally be where you plan to meet as a troop throughout the year. This will give girls and families some general familiarity with the location and how to get there.

- Invite troop families: Prepare and distribute an invitation to all troop families (parents/guardians) to attend. Contact information for each girl registered in the troop is available through the Volunteer Toolkit (VTK) on the My Troop tab. There is a convenient “email to all contacts” envelope button located on the Troop Info bar. Introduce yourself, provide the meeting location details and any request for forms or materials you need the families to complete (like the registration form, health history form, permission slip, dues, etc.) Be sure to provide blank copies of the forms you need them to complete along with the invitation.

- Create a girl activity: Plan an activity that the girls can do during the meeting while you chat with the families. This should be an activity that the girls can do by themselves. You can also set aside a nearby area of the meeting space where girls can work on a quiet activity together with your co-leader while you meet with parents.

What materials should I prepare before the meeting?

- Girl activity supplies: Coloring sheets, crayons, etc.
- Forms: Register online or bring extra copies of registration forms. Also prepare a GSSJC COVID-19 Screening Log to screen parents and girls, GSSJC COVID-19 Screening Questions, health history forms and the latest permission slips. All of these forms can be found on the website under Volunteer Hub, Forms and + Documents. You’ll see examples of our health history form and permission slip on the following pages. You may also email these forms to parents in advance of the meeting to complete prior. Use add-a-member on the My Troop tab to register new girls or volunteers.

Tip: One fun option is to provide girls with the “My Girl Scout Year” activity to find out what they want to do throughout the year. It’s on page 16!

I am aware of the highly contagious nature of the 2019 novel coronavirus disease ("COVID-19") as well as the symptoms, illnesses, and effects it causes. I am also aware that by participating in any Girl Scouts of San Jacinto Council ("GSSJC") activity, I, my family, our household members, and those with whom we come into contact could experience exposure to or infection of COVID-19 as well as its serious effects, which include illness, injury, permanent disability, and death. I acknowledge that this risk may result from or be compounded by the acts or omissions of others, including GSSJC employees and volunteers. I understand that while the GSSJC has implemented preventative measures to reduce the spread of COVID-19, GSSJC cannot guarantee that I, my family members, my household members, or those people with whom we come into contact will not become infected with COVID-19 as a result of participating in GSSJC activities or while on GSSJC premises.

I am familiar with federal, state, and local laws, orders, directives, and guidelines related to COVID-19, including the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention ("CDC") guidance. I will comply with and all such orders, directives, and guidelines while participating in GSSJC activities and while on GSSJC premises. I further agree that while participating in GSSJC activities and while on GSSJC premises, I am required to follow all GSSJC guidelines, including all COVID-19 instructions, that have been provided to me, whether in an agreement at the activity or on GSSJC’s COVID-19 webpages. I further understand that any violation of these guidelines or staff directions may result in me being asked to immediately cease participation in the activity with no refund.

I agree that I will not participate in any in-person GSSJC meetings or activities or come on GSSJC premises if I am experiencing symptoms of COVID-19 (such as cough, shortness of breath, fever, chills, muscle pain, sore throat, or new loss of taste or smell); have a confirmed or suspected case of COVID-19; or have had close contact in the last 14 days with a person who has been confirmed or suspected of having COVID-19. In the event that I receive a positive antigen test result for COVID-19 in the next 14 days, I will immediately notify GSSJC by contacting Melissa Hardy at mhardy@sigsc.org, and I and others members of my household will also refrain from participating in any in-person GSSJC meetings or activities for at least 14 days after a positive antigen test date, even if we are asymptomatic.

In consideration of being permitted to participate in GSSJC activities, I, on behalf of myself, and any and all of our beneficiaries, heirs, next of kin, successors, assigns, representatives, and agents, do hereby release, acquit, and forever discharge Girl Scouts of the USA and GSSJC and each of their respective owners, officers, directors, employees, agents, contractors, representatives, and volunteers (collectively, "Releasees") from any and all claims, demands, liabilities, causes of action, and damages (collectively, "Claims") related to or arising out of COVID-19, including, but not limited to, any and all Claims related to or arising out of any COVID-19-related illness, injury, disability, or death experienced by myself, or any other member of our family or household, regardless of whether such claims are caused, in whole or in part, by the sole, contributory, or concurrent negligence, strict liability, premises liability, or other tortious or wrongful conduct of Releasees. Notwithstanding the risks associated with COVID-19, I hereby accept and assume all risks of any COVID-19-related illness, injury, disability, or death experienced by myself, or any other member of our family or household, regardless of whether such risk is caused, in whole or in part, by the sole, contributory, or concurrent negligence, strict liability, premises liability, or other tortious or wrongful conduct of Releasees.

By signing below, I hereby certify that I have read and fully understand all of the terms of this Assumption of Risk and Release of Liability – Coronavirus/COVID-19 (the “Release”) and that I am voluntarily giving up substantial legal rights, including the right to sue the Releasees as described above. I am voluntarily, knowingly, and unconditionally signing this Release and hereby agree to all of the terms and conditions of this Release.

Revised 3/17
SAMPLE FAMILY MEETING AGENDA

Below is a sample agenda you can follow for your meeting, but remember, this is your meeting! Structure it to fit your needs.

Welcome and Introductions

- Welcome: Greet everyone who attends, and ask them to sign in. Help girls introduce themselves to one another.
- Girl activity: Guide the girls to the activity you’ve planned for them so they can get settled in before the meeting starts.
- Introductions: Introduce yourself and any other present Girl Scout volunteers. Have participants introduce themselves and share if they have any Girl Scout experiences. If you do not have a second troop leader, explain to families the process of becoming a leader and two leaders are required for each troop. Explain that the troop leader’s role is to work with girls, but that it is the girls’ troop, because girls lead! The troop will do activities based on what the girls choose. Explain the Girl Scout mission and how we engage girls in discovering themselves, connecting with others and taking action to make the world a better place.

Program Information

- Girl-led: Communicate that troops are girl-led, meaning the girls collectively decide, along with your guidance, what they’d like to do as a troop. As they get older, they’ll take on more leadership roles, and will have more opportunities to explore new interests.
- Program materials/uniforms: Program Materials/Uniforms: Share the Girl Scout program materials such as the Journey books and Handbooks specific to your troops program level. Let families know the Handbooks will have information about Girl Scouts, as well as the badges and Journeys that will be the basis for their girl’s leadership experiences.

Registration and Forms

- Registration: Each girl must be registered to participate. Parents and guardians must also register and complete the approval process (background check) if they plan to help with the troop on a regular basis.
- Collect forms: Collect forms, health history forms, permission slips, etc. that you need from families.
Parent/Guardian Expectations

- Even with troop leadership in place, parents and guardians should still play a role and are important for the success of a troop.
- Prior to the Family Meeting, review the Family Involvement section of this guide outlining ways families can support the troop and leadership team. Ask for help transporting or chaperoning girls on trips, bringing snacks, sharing special talents or attending troop meetings. A super way to support the troop is to become the troop cookie manager or troop fall product manager. Training is required for this role. Remind parents and guardians that any adult that has regular contact with girls (including friends and family role), handles money or chaperones trips must be a registered member and complete a background check. Consult Volunteer Essentials or email customerservice@sjgs.org if you have any questions about who should be registered.

Troop Finances

- Troop dues: Determine whether you wish to collect troop dues from each family. A recommendation is about .50 cents to $2 per meeting. Explain that the membership dues are for the national membership in GSUSA that provides liability insurance during Girl Scout activities and developing resources such as VTK. Troop dues are what assist the troop to buy project supplies, cover meeting expenses and any additional badges earned. However, in the first year, there may be some out-of-pocket expenses such as field trips and uniforms/books.
- Fall Product and Cookie Programs: The Fall Product and Cookie Programs are designed to help girls learn about financial literacy and a couple of other soft skills. They are also an opportunity for troops to earn proceeds to fund their Girl Scout experience.

Communication and Meeting Dates

- Meeting times and location: Meeting days, times and locations are determined by the troop leader who works with girls’ families to find a good time that works for everyone. There is no set requirement as to when or how frequently troops meet. In most cases, troops meet twice a month for 60-90 minutes.
  - Troop communication: Talk about how you plan to keep in touch with families about upcoming troop activities, dates, and reminders. Ask the adults to review the phone/email list to ensure their information is correct. Decide on a method of communication that will work best for parents (email, phone, text, etc.)

Closing

Thank parents and guardians for coming. Ask if there are any questions.

Hooray, you did it!
As a troop leader, you’ll be developing meaningful relationships with the girls in your troop. Parents and guardians can also provide assistance and experience to your troop and help make meetings and events run more smoothly. Here are some tips on fostering relationships with your girls’ families:

- Let them know that families and troop leaders need to work together to support the troop. Here are some benefits of parent/guardian involvement that you can share with families:
  - Parents and guardians know their children better than anyone else. They can provide insight and help when it comes to planning and problem solving.
  - Involving caregivers can help keep girls interested in the troop and troop activities.
  - Involved caregivers become closer to their girls, develop an extended social network and are actively contributing to the community.

- Ask for help in transporting girls on trips, bringing snacks, sharing special talents with the troop or by attending troop meetings. Make a check list of tasks you’d like assistance with and have a sign-up sheet to ensure parent/guardian participation. Some volunteer activities may require additional paperwork or required training.

- Communicate often with parents and guardians (through email or printed updates). Talk to parents as they pick up and drop off their girls. The Volunteer Toolkit has emails to families that coordinate with each meeting plan. Let families know how and when they can communicate with you.

If parents or guardians will be working directly with girls, they’ll need to become a registered volunteer and complete a background check. There are many ways families can participate in a girl’s Girl Scouting experience:

TROOP VOLUNTEER POSITIONS:

- Troop leaders – completion of Volunteer Basics training required within 30 days
- Troop cookie manager – Troop Cookie Manager training required, completion of Volunteer Basics training suggested
- Troop fall product manager – Troop Fall Product Manager training required, completion of Volunteer Basics training suggested
- First aider – completion of a First Aid-CPR-AED training as described in Volunteer Essentials. Course must require an in-person, hands-on demonstration of life saving skills from a currently certified provider and participant must have appropriate proof of completion.
- Friends and family
- Camp Trained Adult- Completion of online Camping and Overnight Basics in gsLearn. Additional in-person training, Volunteer Camper Certification is required to use fire circles and grills for outdoor cooking and campfire activities.
- Troop treasurer – completion of Volunteer Basics training suggested

Volunteer roles listed above require role selection, membership, screening, and completion of training. You can find more information regarding what sort of commitment comes with each of these roles at gssjc.org under Volunteer Hub, Ways to Volunteer s. https://www.gssjc.org/en/for-volunteers/ways-to-volunteer.html
MANAGING GIRL BEHAVIOR + TROOP

It is not uncommon for girls or troops to have disagreements or a behavior issue from time to time. The best way to address these topics is to be proactive right from the start! When you take a little bit of time at the beginning of the year to set the tone and expectations for all leaders, girls and families in your troop, your year will run that much more smoothly. And, when an issue does arise, everyone will be on the same page with how to correct the situation.

Create a troop agreement

A troop agreement is when the leaders and girls work together to come up with an agreed-upon set of rules for troop meetings and outings. Use the Girl Scout Promise and Law to help start the conversation! You should do a new troop agreement at the beginning of each year.

At your first or second troop meeting, have the girls as a group create a troop agreement. Share with the girls that a troop agreement is a document, created together by the troop, with guidelines for behavior that every troop member agrees to follow. A troop agreement helps to make sure everyone can feel safe and have fun at Girl Scouts.

Review the Promise & Law and ask the girls what words or phrases they like in the Promise & Law? How does it feel to be friendly? Helpful? Considerate? Etc. How does it feel when someone is friendly to you? When someone helps you? When someone is considerate towards you?

Ask the girls to give examples on how they should behave at troop meetings. Share with the girls the rule “Treat others as they would like to be treated.” Ask the girls what they think that means. How should you treat others at troop meetings? Brainstorm ideas for your troop agreement. Topics could be related to your meeting space, materials, how to treat others, arriving/leaving, etc. Each girl should have a chance to share.

As a troop, choose at least five items for your final troop agreement. Examples include:

- Live by the Girl Scout Law
- Work together
- Be a friend, not a bully
- Support one another
- Treat adults and guests with respect
- Leave the space cleaner than you found it
- Be a good listener; don’t interrupt

Once the poster is completed, review the consequences for breaking the agreement, such as reviewing the Girl Scout Law, apologizing, contact the girl’s family about the behavior. Have each girl sign her name on the troop agreement poster. Display the poster at each troop meeting, to remind girls of the agreement they created together.

Share the troop agreement with families so they are aware of behavior expectations of troop members.

*A new troop agreement can be created each year, as a way to incorporate new members and allow for growth and development.
As a troop leader, it will be your responsibility to build and maintain strong lines of communication with your families. And never fear, Girl Scouts of San Jacinto Council is here to help! We have resources to help you do this, and we’re just a phone call away if you want more support. Here are a few notes to get you started.

There are many ways that you can communicate with your families. Many leaders utilize email and closed, private groups on Facebook. Some leaders even create a troop email account that can be used for communication to families. Find our E-Communications Guidelines in the forms section online. The Volunteer Toolkit has email templates built in to support each meeting plan and make communication with families easy.

It is important to remember that some people are not online frequently or at all and prefer a phone call or a text message reminder. Discuss the most convenient methods of communication for you at your family meeting and take into consideration what works for your families.

Of course, you do not want to overwhelm your families with too much information. But do remember that transparency is important in building community with families so they feel more included in your troop. Your families probably do not need to know every single detail of what happened during your troop meeting (like which girls chose apples instead of bananas), but they will want to know about the bigger things that happened during the meeting like how your troop will be participating in the Cookie Program or if their girl fell and scraped her knee. Miscommunication or lack of communication can lead to confusion or conflict. If you have questions or concerns about your troop, remember that your troop mentor or Community leadership team are there to help you figure it out!

MANAGING CONFLICT

You may encounter a time when you need to have an uncomfortable conversation with a family or another volunteer. First, it is important to remember your role as a Girl Scout. You should be honest and fair, considerate and caring, responsible for what you say and do and show respect to yourself and others. When you need to facilitate this conversation, approach it from an objective place. Many times, conflict stems from miscommunication. Try not to place blame or judge the person you are speaking with. Finally, demonstrate active listening. This does not necessarily mean that you need to parrot everything that you hear back to the person, but it does mean responding to the other person in a way that shows that you are present and listening to what they are saying.
SAFETY FIRST!

The safety and well-being of girl and adult members is our highest priority. As a troop leader, it’s imperative to know and understand the safety policies and procedures in place, where to look or whom to ask for more information when necessary. Listed below are some of the main resources where safety policies are listed. Safety and policies can feel scary and overwhelming, so know that if you take some time now to review them, you’ll feel more confident as you participate in Girl Scouts. And we’ve got your back! If you have questions or concerns about safety or responsibilities, give us a call.

COVID-19 Guidelines – the safety information related to COVID-19 is located at www.gssjc.org/covid19. This page is updated frequently to reflect current guidance on group size, mask requirements, car pooling guidance, and physical distance required, etc. This page also offers guidance on staying COVID-19 safe on field trips, events, and overnights.

Volunteer Essentials: Volunteer Essentials provides all the information you need to be a successful Girl Scout volunteer (and we mean ALL – it’s quite a lengthy document, so we encourage you to skim through and become familiar with the different sections.) This guide is filled with information about Girl Scouting such as traditions, responsibilities and awards. You will also find information specific to volunteering with Girl Scouts of San Jacinto Council, such as tools, resources and policies. This document is separated into chapters online at www.gssjc.org.

Safety in Girl Scouting Safety-Wise: This is a subsection of Volunteer Essentials and outlines your responsibilities for keeping girls safe. This chapter includes checklists and resources required for Girl Scout activities.

Safety Activity Checkpoints: These include activity-specific safety guidelines including camping, land sports, water sports, Cookie Program, etc.

For the most accurate and complete information about GSSJC policies and procedures, refer to Volunteer Essentials, available at www.gssjc.org.

Zoe is a leader for a Girl Scout Brownie troop that meets every other week at her daughter’s elementary school. At this troop meeting, the girls were working on their Fair Play badge. While the girls were untangling themselves from a human knot, Zoe heard a shout from one of the girls in the troop, Lynnie. Zoe ran closer to see what happened and Lynnie had tripped while moving and landed on her arm. While Lynnie is starting to cry, Zoe is thinking about what to do.

What should she do next?

First, don’t freak out!

1. Tend to the girl. Provide any necessary or immediate first aid.
2. If needed, call 911.
3. Call the girl’s parents/guardians to inform them of what happened.
4. Record: date, time, place, accident and all events following the accident/incident for your records.
5. If 911 was called, contact the Girl Scout Center at 713-292-0300 or 1-800-392-4340. After hours, leave a detailed message with date, time, place, accident/incident details including...
HOW MANY VOLUNTEERS DO YOU NEED?

Whatever the activity, from camping to cookies sales, volunteer supervision is required regardless of the grade level of the girls. The table below has been developed to show the minimum number of volunteers needed to supervise a specific number of girls (councils may also establish maximums due to size or cost restrictions). These volunteer-to-girl supervision ratios were devised to ensure the safety and health of all girls taking part in the activity. For example, if one volunteer has to respond to an emergency, a second volunteer is always on hand for the rest of the girls. It may take you a minute to get used to the layout of this chart, but once you start to use it, you'll find it extremely helpful.

<tr>
<th></th>
<th>Group Meetings</th>
<th>Events, Travel and Camping</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Two unrelated volunteers (at least one of whom is female) for every:</td>

<tr>

</tbody>

Here are some examples on utilizing the chart: If you’re meeting with 17 Daisies, you’ll need three volunteers, at least two of whom are unrelated (in other words, you and someone who is not your sister, spouse, parent or child), and at least one of whom is female. This is determined as follows: for up to 12 Daisies you need two volunteers and one more adult for up to six additional girls. Since you have 17 girls, you need three volunteers (2+1). If, however, you have 17 Cadettes attending a group meeting you need only two unrelated volunteers, at least one of whom is female, since the chart shows that two volunteers can manage up to 25 Cadettes.

In addition to the adult-to-girl ratios, please remember that adult volunteers must be at least 18 years old, currently registered and have a current criminal background check with GSSJC.

Pro Leader Tip
Never feel bad asking for help. Delegate tasks, and meet with your co-leader regularly.
Before getting started as a troop leader, it is important to review and understand what you will be responsible for. These responsibilities will help guide your experience and ensure that you know what you are held accountable for. No need to feel stressed out when reading through; many of these responsibilities are things you probably assumed already!

- Accepting the Girl Scout Promise and Law.
- Understanding the three keys to leadership that are the basis of the Girl Scout Leadership Experience: discover, connect and take action.
- Sharing your knowledge, experience and skills with a positive and flexible approach.
- Working in a partnership with girls so that their activities are girl-led, allow them to learn by doing and allow for cooperative (group) learning; you’ll also partner with other volunteers and council staff for support and guidance.
- Organizing fun, interactive, girl-led activities that address relevant issues and match girls’ interests and needs.
- Facilitating a safe experience for every girl.
- Providing guidance and information regarding Girl Scout group meetings with girls’ parents or guardians on a regular and ongoing basis through a variety of tools, including email, phone calls, newsletters, blogs, other forms of social media and any other method you choose.
- Processing and completing membership registration and other paperwork, such as permission slips.
- Communicating effectively and delivering clear, organized and vibrant presentations or information to an individual or the group.
- Overseeing with honesty, integrity and careful record-keeping the funds that girls raise.
- Maintaining a close connection to your Community.

Please take the time to carefully review Volunteer Essentials Safety in Girl Scouts to know your responsibilities in regards to safety concerns.
Girl Scouts of San Jacinto Council embraces girls of all abilities, backgrounds and heritage, with a specific and positive philosophy of inclusion that benefits everyone. Each girl – without regard to socioeconomic status, race, physical or cognitive ability, ethnicity, primary language or religion – is an equal and valued member of the group, and groups reflect the diversity of the community.

Inclusion is an approach and an attitude rather than a set of guidelines. Inclusion is about belonging, about all girls being offered the same opportunities, about respect and dignity and about honoring the uniqueness of and differences among us all.

You’re accepting and inclusive when you:
- Welcome every girl and focus on building community.
- Emphasize cooperation instead of competition.
- Provide a safe and socially comfortable environment for girls.
- Honor the intrinsic value of each person’s life.
- Teach respect for, understanding of and dignity toward all girls and their families.
- Actively reach out to girls and families who are traditionally excluded or marginalized.
- Foster a sense of belonging to community as a respected and valued peer.

Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging (DEIB) Statement
Girl Scouts of San Jacinto Council fosters belonging and respect for all girls. We empower all girls, volunteers and staff to fulfill their potential and make the world a better place. Our Girl Scout Promise drives us to provide diverse, equitable and inclusive experiences where all girls, volunteers and staff are confident they belong. We stand firm in these commitments and united by these ideals.
Troop finance should not be an intimidating part of your troop leading experience. To ensure that finances are managed appropriately, troops must open a bank account. There should be two registered, unrelated adult volunteers in charge of the bank account. One should be the keeper of the checkbook and debit card; the other should receive the troop's bank statements and review monthly. For more information about opening the troop bank account, please review the Finance Basics video of the Volunteer Basics series and handout at www.gssjc.org.

Girls should be included in making decisions about how their troop’s money is spent; this is key when managing troop finance. Money-earning is an opportunity for girls to gain business and financial literacy skills that are appropriate to their grade-level. Troop finance also provides the opportunity for girls to understand that they must do their part to help the troop earn money to accomplish the things they want to do.

How is money earned

Girl Scout troops should be self-sustaining through the participation in the Fall Product and Cookie Program. Troop dues may be collected to help a new troop accumulate money in their bank account. Girl Scout Daisies and Brownies are only allowed to participate in Council-sponsored money-earning programs, whereas Girl Scout Juniors through Ambassadors can earn money in alternative ways. Please review Girl Scouts of San Jacinto Council’s guidelines before moving forward with any money earning or fundraising activity.

Principles that are important to Girl Scouts of San Jacinto Council in regard to troop finance:

- Girl Scouts is a nonprofit organization.
- Girl Scouting should be affordable.
- Troops are exempt from paying state sales tax in Texas on purchases used solely for Girl Scout activities. (See Certificate of Exemption form).
- Money donated to or earned by a troop becomes that troop’s property and does not belong to individual girls, volunteers or parents/guardians. Funds used should equally benefit all members of the troop and not individuals.
- Additional guidelines are provided for donations in Troop Finances chapter of Volunteer Essentials.

We know that it can be intimidating to keep track of everything that goes in and out of the troop bank account. Check out our Troop Annual Financial Report F-31 on gssjc.org to make tracking troop expenses and income easier!

At the end of the Girl Scout year, you’ll need to submit your troop annual financial report, which includes info about your troop's income and expenses. GSUSA and the Internal Revenue Service requires these documents, and they help to protect the interest of your troop and you as a volunteer. It’s a pretty simple process, and we’ll reach out to you later with more information.

Volunteer Toolkit (VTK)

The Volunteer Toolkit is a digital planning tool that gives you resources and program content to get your troop year started—and keep it going smoothly! Fully customizable, the Volunteer Toolkit is digitally responsive so you can plan and prepare practically anywhere.

Girls have more fun when they can shape their own experience, do hands-on activities and work together as teams. With the Volunteer Toolkit, girls and leaders can explore meeting topics and program activities together and follow the fun as they plan their Girl Scout year.

The VTK includes five tabs that make managing your troop easier:

- My Troop tab: Manage troop contacts, track awards and badges, track attendance and communicate with caregivers/parents. A troop leader can add a member to her troop by using the troop tab within her MYGS account.
- Explore tab: allows you to review many options for meeting plans and pre-set tracks prior to selecting for your troop year.
- Year Plan tab: Allows access to full year plans, including pre-planned Girl Scout badge years and multiple Girl Scout Journeys. These pre-populated plans provide everything you need to get started. At the beginning of each year, you'll spend the first two meetings deciding with the girls what they'd like to do. You'll also set your meeting calendar to include locations, dates and times. New content can be added throughout the year.
- Meeting Plan tab: Customize activities, delete ones that your girls don’t want to do and replace them with new ones.
- Resources tab: This tab provides easy access to Safety Activity Checkpoints and other helpful resources. From here you can add meeting aids to specific meetings in your year plan.
- Finance tab: Share financial information with parents and submit financial information to the Council. This tab provides a transparent way to share troop finance information with troop parents.
